

Regulation – Congress

1. RCN Council will consult the membership through its governance structure and at Congress before it makes any amendments to the regulation
2. RCN Congress is the representative meeting of members and will meet annually
3. RCN Congress can ask the Council to take action on any matter that fall with the RCN objects (Royal Charter 3. Objects). RCN Council can either take the action or report back the reasons for not taking action by means of its Report to Congress to the next meeting of Congress.
4. A policy and process document will set out in more detail the purpose, conduct and rules of Congress.

Agreed by RCN Council 2 December 2015